"A valuable training aid, ft is a product of the research staff of the Megalo Corporation Programming Services Department".It isn't the realists who find life dreadful. It's the romancers. After all, which group is trying to escape from life? Reality is horrible and wonderful, disappointing and ecstatic, beautiful and ugly.

Reality is everything. Reality is what there is. Only the hopelessly insensitive find reality so pleasant as to never want to get away from it. But pain-killers can be bad for the health, and even if they were not, I am damned if anyone will make me say that the newest fad in analgesics is equivalent to the illumination, which is the other thing (besides pleasure) art ought to provide. Bravery, nobility, sublimity, and beauty that have no connection with the real world are simply fake, and once readers realize that escape does not work, the glamor fades, the sublime aristocrats turn silly, the profundities become simplifications, and one enters (if one is lucky) into the dreadful discipline of reality and art, like "In the Penal Colony." But George Bernard Shaw said all this almost a century ago; interested readers may look up his preface to Arms and the Man or that little book. The Quintessence of Ibsenism..A House Divided..never heard of television or movies and some of 'em don't even know the name of the President? Most of."We do. Between them and our celebrity citizens, shopkeepers and simple businessmen like me are a minority group. Avenine is really a village with a large population."..so they said. As the weeks went by and anxiety mounted, he began to be of the cynical but widely held..you'd swear he was no more than four years old. You've seen little kids with those big, guileless..,"You're not going to meet anyone there but temps and various people who are out to fleece temps. With rare exceptions."..That sweet, yielding, dependency is no more than what her father trained into her. It's the Senator I..they die, or maybe they have some other way of passing the time.
