Amos himself was well aware how long he would have hesitated had the question been asked of him. As the seconds passed, he began to fear for Jack's life, and wished he had had a chance to figure some other way to get the mirror out One minute passed; perhaps they could have tricked the girl into bringing it up herself. Two minutes; they could have tied a string to the leg of a frog and sent him down to do the searching. Three minutes; there was not a bubble on the water, and Amos surprised himself by deciding the only thing to do was to jump in and at least try to save the prince. But there was a splash of water at his feet. The thing's eyes focused for a moment on Detweiler. It looked at him, beseeching, held out one hand.. "Both. I don't have anything concrete except to say that we'll survive the same way humans have. 148. "That's the land of the Far Rainbow!" cried Jack. "We could almost step through into it!"
